Important School Rules:

Kathmandu University High School is a constituent part of Kathmandu University, an independent non-profit, non-government public institution. It has always aimed to create a new generation of leaders and professional women and men with a caring and responsible attitude to the community and to the future of Nepal. Students must follow the code of conduct of the school. Students, at first are counseled for their minor misconduct. In case of repeated offence, parents/guardians are notified. Irresponsible and ill-mannered behaviour will be considered as an act of indiscipline. Serious offences may lead to student's expulsion.

Serious Offences:

- Being in possession of indulging in tobacco, alcohol or drug abuse.
- Boys and girls must maintain the best of behaviour and school decorum.
- Leaving the school campus or hostel without permission.
- Cheating in an exam or test.
- Any sort of physical or verbal abuse is strictly forbidden.
- Causing damage to school property. Student must compensate all the expenses for any loss or damage. Serious offence may lead to expulsion from school.
- Students are prohibited to eat outside other than school canteen. Failure to comply may take the matter to the School Senior Management team for necessary action.
- Students are not allowed to come to school in their motorbikes.
- Students are discouraged to bring valuables, cash or jewellery items. They will be solely responsible for theft or loss.

Note: Students are prohibited to bring smart cell phones to the school (simple mobile sets are permitted).

General information about the hostels:

- Students spend only 4 nights in the hostels. They come to school on Monday morning and go home on Friday evening.
- If any holiday falls on Monday, students come to school on the following day.
- If any holiday falls on Friday, students will be sent home on Thursday evening. If the hostel is unable to send students on Friday due to unavoidable circumstances, then students will come home on Saturday morning.
- Students are not allowed to bring any edible items in the hostel or the school.
- Electronic gadgets like smart mobile phones, tablets, camera, are strictly prohibited.
- If you want your child to be at home for any function during weekdays, an application has to be sent in advance. Transportation is not available in these cases.
- If your child is sick at home and needs to continue taking medicine at school, clear instructions must be sent in writing.
- All your child's belongings must be stitched clearly with the given alphabet and number once they are admitted.

Class Timing:

The class starts at 7.30 am and ends at 2.30 pm. In between there will be a lunch break, snacks break and short break.

Extra-Curricular Activities:

Students have a regular schedule of 80 minutes in a week to play different games. They mostly play basketball, football, table tennis, cricket, badminton and several other indoor games and outdoor games. There are 4 clubs where students take leadership and involve into various activities.

Field Visits and Educational Tours:

Students visit to different sites for research according to the subject. They observe, collect data, analyse it and come to conclusions and further share it with their friends. They are much more involved into experiential learning. Once in a year they move out for educational tours inside and outside the country. We organize students' exchange program with schools of Australia.
